

Basic Detail Report

Mountain Goat Horn Spoon

Date
1890-1904

Medium
mountain goat horn

Description

made from two joined horns: the bowl is carved and spread from one horn, fitted into the hollow at the base of the handle which is formed from the second horn. join is secured with 3 copper rivets. the bowl is a streaky, translucent brown in colour; the handle is black with a shiny finish. the tapered, backward curving handle is carved with 4 figures; these possibly represent, from bowl up; frog, raven, man? (with animal ears, fins), sea bear (?) and small man. collected in Skidegate

Dimensions
Other: 6.2 × 32 cm (2 7/16 × 12 5/8 in.)