

Basic Detail Report

---

Plaque

Date

1895-1901

Medium

red cedar

Description

carved board from single piece of wood. in centre, a large front view bird's head carved in relief, with downward pointing beak. at base of beak, a small human like, smiling face, also carved in relief. wings are carved in low relief on either side of the head; other features of claws and ovoid form joints are incised into surface of wood. in Newcombes catalogue he describes it as Coffin board of yellow cedar. representing the raven crest. ancient collected in Ts'aahl

Dimensions

Other: 44 × 10 × 90 cm (17 5/16 × 3 15/16 × 35 7/16 in.)