

Basic Detail Report

Halibut Hook

Date

1899

Medium

yew wood, cotton, iron, spruce root

Description

halibut hook, of yew cut from a knot, steamed and bent shaped as rounded v. end of longer, thicker arm is bevelled to hold point of square iron nail. nail lashed to arm with spruce root lashing. end of this arm is notched. root lashing holds 4 ply lead of twisted root to other arm. narrow string wound around lead.

Dimensions

Other (longest arm with point): 21.2 cm (8 3/8 in.) Other (at gap): 10.9 cm (4 5/16 in.)