

Basic Detail Report

---

Wolf and Eagle Headdress

Date

c. 1879

Medium

wood, mammal skin, brass

Description

headdress representing the wolf. wooden. open mouth showing even teeth. face and part of ears, painted blue; nostrils and lips painted red; teeth, part of muzzle and around the eyes painted white; eyebrows and part of ears painted black. slot on top of head between ears. one nail between eyebrows. head and neck of an eagle on top of head, from a separate piece of wood, held in place with brass wire and skin thong. painted white, eyes black, part of beak red. split nailed to each side of back of mask. skin ties are attached in two places at either side.

Dimensions

Other: 19 × 31 × 33 cm (7 1/2 × 12 3/16 × 13 in.)