

Basic Detail Report

Argillite Box

Date

1866

Medium

argillite

Description

argillite 'man's creation out of a clamshell'. rectangular lid with border of fine flutes, also on edge of oval clam shell in centre, carved in high relief. five heads protrude from top edge of shell. frog and bear in high relief on either side of clam. four triangular pieces glued on underside corners. attrb. to Charles Edenshaw at first, then changed to attrb. John Robson collected in Skidegate.

Dimensions

Other: 21.6 × 1.9 × 35.6 cm (8 1/2 × 3/4 × 14 in.)