

Argillite Totem Pole

Date

1879

Medium

argillite

Description

pushed and glued into a separate round base with a frog like head pushing its way out of the front. starting at the bottom of the pole, a grizzly bear sits, his fore paws holding his protruding tongue. sitting above is a beaver with bent knees large mouth showing incisors; above, a raven's head with slightly open bent beak. on top sits an eagle with an ivory head pegged and glued on. the back of the pole has been carved concave

Dimensions

Other: 56 × 8.2 cm (22 1/16 × 3 1/4 in.)