

Basic Detail Report

Maul

Date

1895-1901

Medium

stone, wood, kelp

Description

grooved stone head lashed to wooden handle with strip of twisted kelp. head pecked and ground from single piece of grey stone into roughly cylindrical shape. base is flat; distal end is truncated cone rounded at end. central groove (4.0cm wide) cut to run parallel to ends extends to base. strip of kelp is lashed around base of platform of handle and in groove of head. rectangular platform has two grooves on bottom for lashing. handle shaft, circular in cross section, curved down from centre of platform.

Dimensions

Other: 64.4 cm (25 3/8 in.)