

Basic Detail Report

Bear Frontlet

Medium

wool, fur, wood, abalone, leather, sinew

Description

carved from a single piece of wood, a bear and a eagle on the forehead of the bear in between the ears. going around the bear are abalone shells inlaid on the frontlet, also around the bear body, paws, ears, teeth, ears, eyes, and the eagles eyes and mouth have abalone shell inlaid. the frontlet is fastened to wool fabric for a headdress. some leather string going around, with sinew holding it down.