

Beaver and Frog Headdress

Medium

wood, paint, sealion whiskers, flicker feathers, abalone, leather, ermine

Description

finely carved beaver and frog headdress. the sealion whiskers are on the top of the headdress, it is painted in red, black and dark blue. the beaver is holding a stick in its mouth with abalone inlays, the frog is on the belly with the tail of the beaver flipped up with abalone inlay. inlays on the arms and legs of the beaver and going around the headdress. flicker feathers on the sides of the headdress, leather train is full of ermines.